

National Trust of Australia

Exhibition Room Attendant

Treasures of the Trust Exhibition at Como House

- provide interesting and accurate information to visitors
- Promote historic Como House safely and securely
- Inform visitors about Trust membership & attractions

You are a person with excellent communication and interpersonal skills and enjoy working in a team environment. You have an interest and willingness to learn about Australian history and how various pieces of The National Trust collection relate to Como House.

EXPERIENCE/ SKILLS/ KNOWLEDGE REQUIRED:

Essential:

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Keen interest in and willingness to learn about the exhibition
- Ability to work as part of a team
- Keen interest in and willingness to promote the work and membership of the National Trust
- Reliable commitment to the roster
- Able to commit to a weekly or fortnightly shift

TRAINING/ SUPERVISION PROVIDED: Orientation and training provided

The Treasures of the Trust Exhibition runs at Como Historic House from 20 August to 22 November; 7 days a week from 10:00-4:00. Contact Valerie at Como 9827 2500 for more information.

This Volunteering Opportunity is located in the 3141 postcode.