

Victorian National Trust Member Benefits

Visit all National Trust properties across Victoria and Australia for free including award winning attractions such as Australia's Best Cultural & Heritage Experience, the Old Melbourne Gaol

When you travel overseas you gain free access to the hundreds of Trust properties worldwide, in 20 countries!

Discounts at more than 50 heritage B&Bs in Victoria

Monthly specialist e-newsletter and quarterly Trust News magazine

Regular email updates on critical issues

Support the largest community based heritage organisation in Victoria – your membership will help preserve important parts of Victoria's built, natural and cultural heritage and support development of advocacy and representation activities

National Trust members receive concession prices to all Australian Center for the Moving Image (ACMI) film programs (Australian Perspectives, Freaky Fridays, Long Play, Focus On, First Look) at Federation Square

30% off your total bill at Il Tempo Café in Degraeves Street, one of Melbourne's best laneways, just off Flinders Street

Invitations to events

Opportunity to participate in Trust campaigns through engagement in different mediums

National Trust website dedicated to keeping members informed

Access to sponsor's benefits such as 15% discount on Haymes Paint at nominated paint stores across Victoria

10% discount at National Trust retail outlets

Discounted entry to associated heritage properties: Beleura (Mornington Peninsula), Villa Alba (Kew), Johnson Collection and Captain Cook's Cottage (East Melbourne), Rupertswood Mansion (Sunbury) and free entry to The Briars Historic Park (Mornington Peninsula), Joss House (Bendigo) and Powder Magazine (Beechworth)

Voting rights at the Annual General Meeting (AGM)

Participation in a wide variety of social activities, tours, talks, visits to heritage properties and special events – some free e.g. Australia Day at Como, Teddy Bears' Picnic, but most at discounted price

Volunteer opportunities

Eligibility to join your local National Trust Branch

Various other ad hoc benefits such as wine, film and exhibition tickets offered through our e-news